

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

March 17, 1960

13

ST. PATRICK BENEFIT . . . On Saturday evening at the Westport Beach club in Playa Del Rey, the Auxiliary to the Pharmaceutical Assn. will stage a gala Shamrock Ball to benefit its scholarship fund. Working on decorations are from left Mmes Clarence Brauer, Derck Engelbert and Ralph Rector.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I Have A Dog . . ."

Dear Ann Landers: I am Jackie. Please don't throw this away. I am 11 years old.

I have a dog. He is a very good dog. My mother won't let the dog in the house until she is ready to go to bed. Sometimes it is almost 11:00 o'clock at night.

It has been very cold here lately. The dog cries out in the yard until it breaks my heart. If Mom would take pity on him, and let him in to warm up it would help. You are her size so maybe she will listen to you. Thank you. — JACKIE FROM R.

Dear Jackie: Most dogs cry in the yard because they are lonesome, not because they are cold. Nature provides outdoor animals with fur coats.

Since Mom DOES let the dog in to sleep ask her if she'll please let him in a couple of hours earlier on winter nights. I'm hoping she'll say yes.

Dear Ann: I'm a divorcee who needs some practical advice. A few weeks ago I got an excellent job in a large office. People have been very friendly, especially a woman who works in this department.

She fixed me up with her unmarried brother two weeks ago and he's called me for three dates since. We seemed to click from the start, but there's one fly in the ointment. The man is grand company but on the first date I discovered he drinks like a fish.

Frankly, I'm afraid to ride with him at the end of the evening. He swears he's never had an accident. If true, it's a miracle. Would it be rude to insist he take me home in a taxi? — NERVOUS

Dear Nervous: If this guy drinks like a fish tell him you'd be happy to swim with him, but you won't ride with him.

It's not rude, it's sensible to refuse to ride with a man who is intoxicated. In fact, you'd be performing a public service to (Continued on Page 14)

England Trip

Mrs. Kenneth Miller and son, Jimmie, 20514 Amie, are planning to leave May 14 for London, England, Mrs. Miller's former home. They will go by plane and will visit relatives for one month.

Attend Party

Mrs. Howard Halquist, Mrs. Don Wiseman and Mrs. C. L. Porter attended a party last Wednesday in Rossmore. They were the guests of Mrs. Lois Banasky, who formerly resided at 1104 Elm Ave.

For Camping Fund

Scout Mothers to Stage Style Show

"Golden Jubilee of Fashion" commemorating the 50th year of Scouting will be the theme of the annual fashion show to be staged March 30, by the Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop and Explorer Post 753. The affair will be held at the American Legion hall, 1424 S. Prairie Ave. at 8 p.m.

The newest spring and summer fashions will be shown by a local dress shop. Modeling will be Mmes. William Capps, Roy Dohner, Ollie Wieringa, Al MacKenzie, Glenn Blake, James McConnell, Murle Brown; Misses Linda Kern, Betty Jo Reading and Linda Andicochea.

Favors will be presented to all guests upon arrival and numerous door prizes will be awarded.

During the intermission there will be entertainment by a group of talented young people.

The money derived from the show will be used to send boys to camp this coming summer and for much needed equipment.

Mrs. Delmer Kern is serving as chairman of the show. Tickets may be purchased from any of the Scout parents.

PLAN DECOR . . . Mrs. Delmer Kern, fashion show coordinator and Mrs. Murle Brown, model and decorations chairman, discuss the annual fashion show to be given by the Mothers club at the American Legion hall on Prairie Ave. March 30. The show will begin at 8 p.m. and will carry out the Golden Jubilee of Scouting.

For Scholarships

Shamrock Ball Set Saturday

South Bay Pharmaceutical Association and Women's Auxiliary will hold their Fourth Annual Shamrock Ball dinner dance on Saturday, March 19, at the Westport Beach Club, 7301 Ocean Front Walk, Playa del Rey.

Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. followed by a delicious prime rib dinner at 9 p.m. Dancing to the music of Ed Clothier and his orchestra will be enjoyed by members and guests until 1 a.m.

Mrs. Donald Demarest, president of the Women's Auxiliary, announces that all proceeds will go to the Pharmacy Scholarship Fund, which assists worthy pharmacy students in completing their necessary education.

Women Auxiliary members planning this event are: Mmes. Fred Reese, Jack Dean, reservations; Charles Bogolea, prizes; C. P. Abler and Carl Putnam, door prize; Douglas Ingle, David Forsyth and Robert Sherrill, decorations; Ralph A. Rector, publicity.

The public is cordially invited to attend this gala affair, and may receive additional information by calling Mrs. Jack Dean or Mrs. Fred Reese.

JEAN ANN TOLLACK . . . Future Bride

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Tollack of Burbank are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Jean Ann, to Mark Edwin Eubank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Eubank, 816 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Tollack is a graduate of the John Burroughs High school in Burbank and is presently attending UCLA.

Her fiancé was graduated from Torrance High school and is also a student at UCLA.

Entertains For Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schnitzler of Saskatchewan, Canada, will leave April 1 for their home after spending the past two months here with their daughter and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Landerville, 1121 Cranbrook.

Mrs. Landerville has entertained at two coffees for her parents. Last Monday she had as her guests three neighbors on Beech Ave. They were Mmes. Mary McDonald, Victor Benstead and Hazel Ward.

On another morning her guests were Mmes. Ann Homolka, Mary McKinney, Davey Leighton, Opal Prieur, Gladys Ward, Ella Gitschier, and Mr. and Mrs. Reg Davis of Redondo, formerly of Saskatchewan.

Barringtons On Mexico Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrington, 2368 Torrance Blvd., returned recently from a two weeks trip to Mexico. They flew from Torrance to El Paso, went to Juarez and boarded a plane for Torreon where Mr. Barrington attended a convention of the Oil Mill superintendents. After three days, the couple flew to Mexico City for several days before going to Guadalajara where they completed their vacation before taking a plane home.

Beau Jardin Garden Club Seats Officers

Mrs. James Stadler was installed as president of the Beau Jardin Garden club at a dinner on March 9 at the Tasman Sea Inn in San Pedro. Installed to serve during the coming year with Mrs. Stadler were Mrs. Don Drorbaugh, vice president; Mrs. Robert Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Wor-gul, recording secretary; and Mrs. John Beattie, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Darrell Smith charged the new officers with their duties and presented each with a flower nosegay as part of the impressive installation ceremony.

The evening began with a social hour at the home of Mrs. John Hathaway, 4505 Scott St., in Torrance.

The group then went to the Inn for dinner. Mrs. Stadler gave the annual report for the club, which included a description of the year's activities, aims, programs, speakers and philanthropies.

Club Hostess

Mrs. D. P. Le Galley entertained her bridge club Monday at her home, 231 Las Colinas.

After the serving of dessert, the afternoon was spent in bridge with the first prize going to Mrs. Elizabeth Davies and second to Mrs. Willard Irwin.

Mrs. Le Galley's guests were Mmes. H. J. Osborne, H. C. Mitchell, Elizabeth Davies, Rose Johnson, D. J. Quinlivan, Willard Irwin, and G. Bingham.

Mammoth Skiing

Returning Sunday from a week of skiing at Mammoth in the High Sierras were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lundgren, 26863 Westva's, Rolling Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McGee, 4727 Marloma Dr., also of Rolling Hills. They spent the entire time skiing. Although they encountered stinging winds one day, and snow fall a couple of other days, the weather was not bad enough to keep them in.

Members were presented with nosegays which revealed the "secret pals" for the coming year. Decorations were suggestive of spring carried out with pink nosegays and Easter bonnets.

La Fheile Padraig fe Shona Dhuit

(HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY TO YOU)

TOP 'O THE MORNIN' . . . 'Tis a great day for the Irish this St. Patrick's Day, say Terry, Michael and Mary Beth Brennan. With Dublin Derby hats and Irish smiles the trio hold a plaque with Brennan coat of arms and motto. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Kieran Brennan, 3514 W. 227th Pl., all attend Nativity school.

Alums Hear Speaker

Mrs. Louis Bradvica was hostess to the South Bay Alum group of Alpha Xi Delta, at her home, 21226 Ladeen Ave., last Wednesday. The speaker was Miss Margaret Mudgett, director of Neighborhood Youth Assn. which has club houses in the Sawtelle, Venice, and the newly acquired Wilmington areas.

They work with teen-age youngsters who can't conform or compete with more normal children their own age. She told how they got their members, some of their activities, and problems, and some of the results. This is the sorority's local philanthropy.

A short business meeting and refreshments, completed the evening.

Former Residents

On South Sea Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Canty of Tacoma, Wash., formerly of Torrance were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Wisneski, 3132 Dalemead Ave. on March 6 at the Entre Nous restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Canty sailed on the Monterey, Matson Lines, to Tahiti, New Zealand, Sydney Australia, Samoa and Hawaii on a 42-day cruise.

An Irish Heritage

It's A Fine Day For The Kieran Brennan Family

By BOB WILTON

The Brennan clan will celebrate St. Patrick's Day in true Irish fashion today and greet friends with "Top of the mornin'" to you.

Mr. and Mrs. Kieran Brennan, who live at 3514 W. 227th Pl., have two laddies and one fine colleen. Michael, 10, is in the fifth grade and is a member of the Little League Dodgers.

Mary Beth, 8, and in the third grade, is always happiest when on ice or roller skates. The wee fellow is Terry, 7, in his second year of school and a skater in his own right, but can hardly wait until "I am big enough" to play baseball like his brother. All three children attend Nativity school in Torrance.

If the Brennans ever need to prove their Irish descent they have a plaque with their family coat of arms and the legend "Metto Sub Hoc Signo Vinco." Translated this means "Conquer With This Sign." But the Brennans need not be challenged with their birthright, nor descent as the children's grandfather was born in Ireland and came here from Maryboro, Queens County, in 1925.

Grandpa Brennan is employed as a comptroller with a tabulating concern in Chicago, but plans to make Torrance his home when he retires in the near future.

Dad Brennan is a liaison engineer with Ramo-Woolbridge in Beverly Hills and when he isn't working on spaceship electronics he is dividing his spare time between skating and baseball.

Mom spends her free time working with the Nativity Mothers Club, the Altar Society, the Little Company of Mary Auxiliary and still finds time to be a Dodger fan.

At Green Valley

Ronnie Hixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hixon, 2054 Kathy Way, was guest of the Richard Haggood family of Harbor City last weekend at Green Valley.

While there, Ronnie took instructions in the art of skiing and now has joined the ranks of ski enthusiasts.

ASSUME LEADERSHIP . . . Admiring nosegays made by Mrs. Kenneth Harmon and her committee are newly installed officers of the Beau Jardin Garden club, from left, Mmes Don Drorbaugh, vice president; Darrell Smith, installing officer; James Stadler, president, John Beattie, corresponding secretary; Robert J. Hill, treasurer; and Fred Worgul, recording secretary.